

LAW AND SOCIETY MAJOR, B.A. – 2004-2005

To qualify for admission into the Law and Society major, students must first complete the pre-major courses in Area A under Preparation for the Major with a UC grade-point average of 2.5 or higher. The four additional preparation courses in Area B will not be included in the pre-major GPA calculation but must be taken for a letter grade and will apply to the overall major GPA. Students may declare a Pre-Law and Society major after they have completed at least one course from the pre-major with a grade of “C” or better. Acceptance into the pre-major does not guarantee admission into the full major. Upon satisfactory completion of the pre-major courses and grade requirements, students must complete a change of major petition, available in the Law and Society Undergraduate Office. Courses in Area B need not be completed prior to the declaration of the full major. Note: Students will not be allowed to take upper-division Law and Society courses until they are in the full major.
